NECESSARY STEPS BEFORE YOUR HOME SEARCH

To make your home search process as smooth as possible, it's crucial that you have your finances and budget in order before you start seriously looking at homes. In a competitive region and real estate market such as ours, having financing pre-approval is key to your success (unless you plan to pay cash). To get pre-approved for a loan, you'll need to connect with a mortgage lender. Who you work with on the financial side is entirely your choice, but I'm always happy to recommend some trusted and knowledgeable lenders who have been integral to my clients' success. Some lenders even offer a certified buyer program, which serves as a type of performance guarantee to a seller who is considering multiple competing offers.

About 30% of successful buyers in our region are cash buyers. If you intend to purchase with all cash, it's important to know that there is likely to be competition from other cash buyers. As a result, it's crucial that your funds be available in liquid form—this could propel you ahead of a buyer who hasn't yet converted other holdings to cash.

Financial benchmarks for buyers

PRE-QUALIFICATION:	Determination of your probability of obtaining a loan.
PRE-APPROVAL:	Lender verification of your income and credit approval. Obtaining pre-approval early in the process can give you and the seller greater confidence in your ability to close on the purchase.
PERFORMANCE GUARANTEE:	Lender certification of your ability to be issued a loan based on a combination of your financial profile and the proposed purchase price of the subject property.
CASH BUYER:	Ability to purchase the home based on verified cash holdings rather than lender financing.

Buying first and selling later?

Since a bridge loan can give you a stronger negotiating position and ease the pressure of having to sell before you buy, speak with your lender about whether they have a bridge loan product. If they don't, Windermere's exclusive bridge loan program can be the perfect solution. The approval process takes only a few days and the fee is just one percent of the loan amount. No payments are necessary on the loan before your home closes unless you choose to make a payment. The principal and interest are due when the home closes, or six months following disbursement, whichever comes first.

WINDERMERE BRIDGE LOAN

THE WINDERMERE BRIDGE LOAN PROGRAM OFFERS YOU:

- A stronger negotiating position
- A simple application
- Fast processing
- No payments due before closing
- Competitive fees and interest rates

Buying a home isn't always a walk in the park.

I just want it to feel like one.

All in, for you.

Determining your maximum price

Understanding how much you can afford is crucial before you start searching for a home. You'll likely work with a lender or financial advisor to calculate your max budget, but before you do, consider taking these steps:

CHECK YOUR CREDIT REPORT

It's best to check your credit report before your lender does so you can correct any mistakes you find before your lender sees them. It also gives you an opportunity to explain any blemishes that show up on your report.

KNOW YOUR CREDIT SCORE

When you check your credit report, you can also check your credit score. (This is known as a "soft credit check" and will not affect your overall credit.) Your score can impact how much lenders are willing to loan you as well as the interest rate you qualify for.

DETERMINE YOUR DOWN PAYMENT

The decision about how much of a down payment you're prepared to make is entirely up to you. The size of your down payment may impact the financing terms your lender gives you. Also, it's typical that a down payment of less than 20% will require you to purchase Private Mortgage Insurance (PMI).

WHAT NOT TO DO WHEN BORROWING MONEY

- Change jobs, become self-employed or quit your job
- Buy a car, truck, motorcycle or van
- Use credit cards more than normal
- Stop paying bills
- Spend money you have saved for closing
- Omit debts or liabilities from your loan application
- Buy big-ticket items (such as furniture)
- Originate any inquiries into your credit or apply for new credit cards
- Make large cash deposits without checking with your loan officer
- Change bank accounts
- Co-sign a loan for anyone
- Change marital status

Start touring

SETTING UP A SUCCESSFUL SEARCH

Once you've determined your budget and we have an idea of what you're looking for, we'll start touring listings. This process will help you get a sense of what you can expect from different types of homes, your price point and the vibe of various neighborhoods. It will also help me get a better sense of your wants and needs in order to continue refining our search.

While the market may be more competitive at certain times, I want you to feel comfortable with every decision you make. There is no right or wrong number of listings to view, nor is there a specific timeline you have to stick to during the search. To help you be confident in your selection, I'll lay out the pros and cons of each contending property. My advice will always be honest and backed up by relevant data.

QUESTIONS TO ASK YOURSELF BEFORE YOU START LOOKING:

- How long do you see yourself living in your home?
- What features are most important to you in a home?
- What neighborhoods and home styles within your budget attract you the most?
- What is your commute tolerance?
- Do you have any specific lifestyle factors that your home must accommodate now?
- Considering any family or roommates, is your household likely to stay the same size?

If you haven't found it yet, keep looking. As with all matters of the heart, you'll know when you find it.”

STEVE JOBS

Due diligence

LET'S TAKE THE TIME TO MAKE SURE THIS REALLY IS THE BEST HOME FOR YOU.

Work with your mortgage professional to be sure that you are comfortable with the price or monthly payment of the home.

Get your questions answered about the neighborhood (it can help to talk to neighbors).

Do a thorough inspection of the home (sewer lines, etc.).

Research schools, commute times, public transit options, etc.

Review comparative home values.

A home inspection

benefits all parties involved by providing insight into the condition of the home, thereby making you an informed buyer.

WALKING YOU THROUGH INSPECTION

Home inspections are a critical part of the home-buying process. They can take the mystery out of buying a home and make it easier for you to imagine yourself living there. Whether commissioned by you or the seller, the inspection will look beyond the home's cosmetics to make sure its general systems operate properly. The inspector will look for large repairs that are needed and present a detailed report on the condition of the home.

As your buyer's agent, I'll help you:

- Find a well-regarded inspector
- Review a seller-procured inspection report
- Review your buyer-procured inspection report
- Help you determine your risk tolerance for required repairs
- Negotiate fair and appropriate solutions if necessary

Putting together your offer

Before writing your first offer on a home, I'll guide you through its various components, including the Purchase and Sale Agreement, state-required forms, all contingencies, and what you'll need to prepare to back up an offer financially.

PREPARING THE OFFER

When you're ready to make an offer on a specific property, I will:

- Perform a market analysis to show how the home compares in value to recent listings and sales
- Work with you to devise a comprehensive strategy for your offer
- Tailor your offer to your comfort level and to the unique circumstances of the listing

PRESENTING YOUR OFFER TO THE SELLER

Once we've written up the Purchase and Sale Agreement and all associated forms, I will:

- Call the seller's agent to inform them that your offer is coming via email
- Tell them a little about you and briefly preview the offer
- Follow up to confirm they received your offer

SECURING YOUR INTEREST WITH A DEPOSIT

Earnest money is a “good faith” deposit submitted with your offer that shows the seller you are serious about purchasing their home.

- The amount of earnest money and the terms surrounding it can make a difference in how attractive the seller finds your offer.
- In a traditional real estate market, it's rare for a buyer to lose the earnest money. If the buyer willfully decides, however, that they no longer want to buy the house and has no legal reason for rescinding their offer, then the seller has the right to retain the earnest money.
- In a very competitive market such as ours, earnest money can convey the seriousness of your commitment to purchasing the property. For example, you may authorize that your earnest money be converted into a non-refundable deposit. This signals to the seller that you are all in and willing to risk your deposit in order to secure the purchase.

Winning offer strategies

Our real estate market is a competitive one. To help you navigate the realities of this landscape when we put together your offer, I'll investigate recent sales data to anticipate the level of competition we may face. I'll also connect with the listing broker to gauge the market's reception of the particular home. Then I'll advise you on specific strategies to maximize the chances your offer will be accepted by the seller, which may include:

PRICE & ESCALATION

In a multiple-offer situation, it may be prudent to offer a price-escalation provision—or escalator clause—to strengthen your offer against competing offers. To do this correctly and confidently, you'll need to know your uppermost price tolerance for the purchase. At that point we'll discuss how an escalator can help your offer stand out, as well as any tactics that might minimize the chances a bidding war will escalate to your maximum budget.

CONTINGENCIES

When we submit an offer on a listing that is expected to receive competing offers, we'll discuss the pros and cons of waiving certain contingencies. These include the inspection, financing, appraisal and title contingencies. I'll counsel you about the impact of each contingency and the risks associated with waiving them.

EARNEST MONEY

Any offer we make will require you to commit a certain dollar amount as a good-faith deposit. In a competitive situation, the more earnest money you can commit, the more your offer may stand out to the seller. Another tactic is authorizing escrow to convert earnest money into a nonrefundable deposit upon offer acceptance. Depending on the level of buyer interest in the listing, we may discuss the benefits of such a maneuver and your tolerance for making it.

TIMING

In a competitive scenario, it may also help to offer a specific closing timeline if that's meaningful to the seller. A favorable rent-back provision may also appeal to the seller so they have more time to vacate the property. Either way, I'll work to ascertain the seller's preferences before we write the offer.

Purchase and Sale Agreement

Before you submit an offer on a home, I'll guide you through the Purchase and Sale Agreement, the contract in which you and the seller outline the details of the property transfer.

THE PURCHASE AND SALE AGREEMENT USUALLY CONSISTS OF THE FOLLOWING:

Earnest money declaration

Financing addendum

Inspection addendum

Optional Clauses addendum (Form 22D)

Addendum outlining special conditions (WRE41)

Lead-based paint notification, when appropriate

FIRPTA (Form 22E)

Title review

THE FOLLOWING FORMS WILL BE INCLUDED WITH YOUR OFFER:

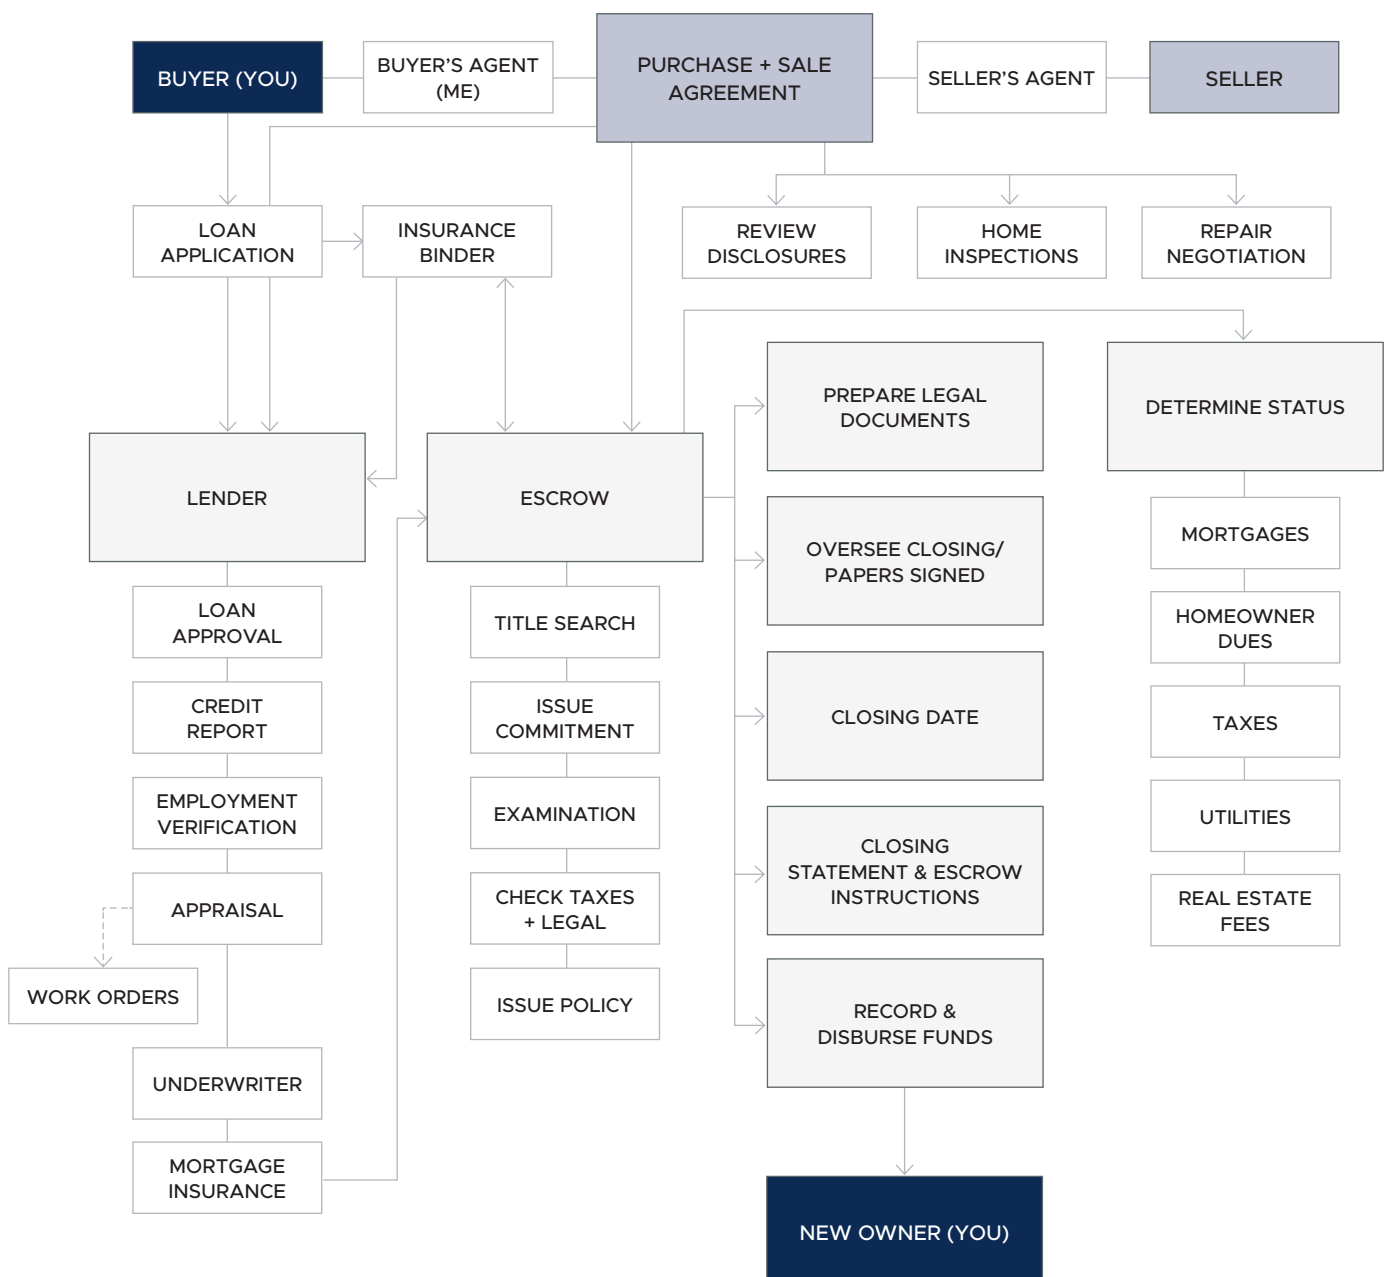

Agency disclosure form

Seller disclosure statement (Form 17)

The path to closing

Once your offer is accepted by the seller, you'll formally begin the process of closing. This period typically takes several weeks, and entails the process of opening escrow for the sale, performing inspections and transferring the title and deed of the house to you. It's a complicated process with many moving parts, but I will make sure you understand everything that's happening so you're never out of the loop.

Settlement & closing

Before mutual acceptance, a closing date is agreed upon by you and the seller. “Closing” is when you each sign all the paperwork and pay your share of the settlement fees, and the documents are recorded. Settlement obligations vary widely due to specific contract language, local laws and customs. Prior to the closing date, the escrow officer will complete a settlement statement detailing all the expenses associated with the purchase of your new home.

THE BUYER PAYS FOR:

Down payment on the home

Buyer’s escrow fee (according to the contract)

Lender’s extended title insurance premium (ALTA)

Document preparation (if applicable)

ESTIMATED DOWN PAYMENT

The only out-of-pocket costs (not financed in your loan) are typically home inspections, appraisal, real estate services fee, and your down payment. A good rule of thumb is to budget around 2.5%-4% of your loan amount (not including your down payment) to cover these costs.

Fees determined by sale price and/or loan amount.*

TAKING POSSESSION

You will sign your closing documents a couple days prior to closing. On the day of closing, typically the documents are recorded at the county in the late afternoon and you will have access to your new home in the early evening.

I will keep in touch to find out how things are going, and I'm always happy to answer any questions you might have. I can also provide referrals (plumbers, electricians, etc.) and give you updates on the value of your home going forward.

If you are happy with my service, I would love to help your friends and family. I always have time for your referrals!

What my clients are saying

“We worked with Jan in our home search and are incredibly grateful for all the help, insights, and follow-ups she provided to help us buy a home that is right for us. We would gladly recommend Jan to anyone in the housing market. Jan was patient for over a year, toured multiple homes with us or by herself, and gave us clear signals on whether a home was even worth pursuing. She always maintained that the right home for us is out there and we needed to keep looking. Jan provided thorough and comprehensive research on the homes we visited and helped us weigh pros and cons, preventing us from making an expensive mistake.

Losing a parent is emotional. The process of selling that parent’s home could be overwhelming — but not with Jan Selvar by your side. Jan is extraordinarily professional, responsive, prepared, and organized. She immediately recognized the personal transition I was trying to navigate. Jan was compassionate and respectful of the emotions.

Jan was patient, knowledgeable, and refused to let us settle on any home but instead helped us find a really good home that will last our family for a long time. She knows Seattle inside and out and was able to guide and direct us into places that fit our budget and our family’s needs. She helped us navigate the craziness of all the bidding and unknowns in this market, and we are so thankful.

Jan is great to work with! When we were transferred to the Seattle area, Jan helped educate us about the different neighborhoods and helped us determine which ones would be a good fit not only for our family but also for my husband’s commute to work. She is knowledgeable about the various neighborhoods around town, as well as the Seattle housing market in general.

Jan helped us purchase our first house in Seattle. With her, you get a total package of expertise, efficiency, and knowledge. Everything moves very smoothly every step of the way from viewing, putting in an offer, advising on the inspection report, and completing the sale.

Her knowledge of the Seattle real estate scene, including fellow realtors, comparable homes (on and off the market), local market considerations, and top-notch inspectors, helped us find the right home and complete a purchase at a good price that was well-negotiated and with no surprises or hiccups.

This is the third time we have used Jan for a real estate transaction — two sales and a purchase. Jan is the consummate professional.”
